

Consider Meditating on the
Ten Days of Awe!
The Christian Feast
of Trumpets

God's Holy Spirit specifically anointed Jesus to preach, teach, and observe the "acceptable year of the Lord" (Isaiah 61:1-2; Lk 4:18-19) meaning the feasts of the Lord (Lev 23:1-44) of which He declares Himself to be the Lord of (Mk 2:28; Mat 12:8; Lk 6:5). The feast of Trumpets begins ten days of awe focusing on our relationship with God (cf., John 1:1-3) symbolizing the last trumpet that will sound God's final judgment upon the world. Visit <http://www.ChristianHebrewRoots.org> for details about the feast.

Songs of Gladness Cards

© 2009 ChristianHebrewRoots.org. All rights reserved.

May God Multiply Our Blessings During the
Ten Days of Awe!
The Christian Feast
of Trumpets

God's Holy Spirit specifically anointed Jesus to preach, teach, and observe the "acceptable year of the Lord" (Isaiah 61:1-2; Lk 4:18-19) meaning the feasts of the Lord (Lev 23:1-44) of which He declares Himself to be the Lord of (Mk 2:28; Mat 12:8; Lk 6:5). The feast of Trumpets begins ten days of awe focusing on our relationship with God (cf., John 1:1-3) symbolizing the last trumpet that will sound God's final judgment upon the world. Visit <http://www.ChristianHebrewRoots.org> for details about the feast.

Songs of Gladness Cards

© 2009 ChristianHebrewRoots.org. All rights reserved.